Cause
Country A is severely damaged as a result of a natural disaster resulting in mass casualties, lack of food and water, inadequate medical supplies, treatment and facilities, limited economic resources and an unresponsive government.

Short-term Effects on Residents of Country A

Long-term Effects on Residents of Country A

Effect on Political Stability of Country A

Effects on the Economy of Country A

Short-term Effects on Other Countries

Long-term Effects on Other Countries

Effect on Political Stability of Other Countries

Effect on Economies of Other Countries